

Northwestern Nevada Licensing and Permits

A joint effort between:
Economic Development Authority of Western Nevada (www.edawn.org)
And
Northern Nevada Development Authority (www.nnda.org)

Last Revised
November, 2007

EDAWN (The Economic Development Authority of Western Nevada) and NNDA (Northern Nevada Development Authority) are private, non-profit corporations founded by community leaders in the early 80s. Over the years, the EDAWN and NNDA professional teams and member volunteers have worked with primary industry entities to help them relocate, expand, retain or start and grow their businesses. Although there is no requirement for businesses to work with either EDAWN or NNDA, many do and organizations and individuals everyday are referring more companies. Our reputation for customer service in helping interested businesses make the right connections and get accurate information in a timely manner is outstanding.

We are pleased to assist you in your efforts to develop and grow your business!

To learn more about the services we offer, contact

EDAWN at: 775-829-3700 or visit our website at www.edawn.org.

NNDA at: 775-883-4413 or visit our website at www.nnda.org.

Remarks: This is a publication created by EDAWN and NNDA for the benefit and information of new and existing companies. The data included in this brochure is intended for informational purposes only. Please refer any specific questions to the appropriate agency.

Licensing & Permits

These are the suggested steps along with a listing and a brief description of each of the forms and filings necessary for business operations in Northern Nevada.

STEP ONE: Create a Corporation, Partnership or Sole Proprietorship Legal Organization

Note: If you choose to use a name other than your legal name, you must file a Fictitious Business Name Certificate (DBA) with the County office to identify the owner(s). This applies to corporations and LLC's, as well as, sole proprietorships and partnerships.

CORPORATIONS AND LIMITED COMPANIES (LLC)

Corporations and LLC's must file Articles of Incorporation or Articles of Organization with the Nevada Secretary of State and maintain all records, minutes, etc. as required by law. You may go to their website and download the appropriate forms.

For more information, contact the Nevada Secretary of State's office at:

101 North Carson Street, Suite 3
Carson City, NV 89701
(775) 684-5708
www.sos.state.nv.us

ALL OF THE ABOVE FORMS SHOULD BE FILED BEFORE YOU BEGIN BUSINESS

STEP TWO: Obtain a Fictitious Name Certificate (DBA)

FICTITIOUS NAME CERTIFICATE

This is needed for all businesses that plan to use a name different than their legal or corporate name. You may wish to check with the County Clerk's office to determine if the fictitious name you want is available by accessing the County Clerk's website. Also, the appropriate forms may be downloaded from their website. The fee is typically $20 every five years.

(775) 684-2000 (voice)

There are no Nevada Department of Taxation offices in Douglas, Lyon or Storey Counties

STEP FOUR: (If required): Obtain a retail sales permit

Every new business must check with the State Department of Taxation to determine whether they need a resale permit, an exemption certificate, or are subject to a use tax. A deposit or bond may be required. Check with the taxation department for fee payment and other information. You may go to their website www.tax.state.nv.us and download the appropriate forms.

EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (EIN)

Everyone doing business must have an employer identification number (EIN) to use as a federal taxpayer identification number. Sole proprietors must also have an EIN if they pay wages to one or more employees or if they are required to file any excise tax returns. The EIN numbers are sometimes referred to as a Tax ID number.

Internal Revenue Service
(866) 816-2065

Businesses can fill out SS-4 online and get an EIN number quickly. See www.irs.gov/smallbiz for details.

WORKERS COMPENSATION

All employers are required to provide workers' compensation insurance for their employees. Contact your business insurance agent for further details.

For information regarding workers' compensation insurance, contact the Industrial Relations Division of the Department of Business and Industry at (775) 687-4270.

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY Division

This is Nevada's unemployment insurance. The business is assigned an experience rate based on the amount of unemployment claims that have been filed. For a new business, the rate is 3.0% of the first $22,000 of wages for each employee and is paid quarterly. The amount of wage subject to the 3.0% tax changes annually more information, contact:
